BOSTON:
T. R. MARVIN & SON, NUMISMATIC PRINTERS.
1896.

The present Catalogue comprises the Collections of the late FRED. W. PORTER, Esq., of Chicago, Ill., sold by order of the assignees of the estate; also of the late GARDINER PIKE, Esq., of New York. Collectively these comprise a large number of interesting and valuable Coins, American and Foreign, in gold, silver and copper. Besides these, the Collection of Dr. EDWIN J. GRANER, of New Orleans, a gentleman who devoted special attention to the issues of the Orleans Mint, will form an important feature of the sale, and will offer special attractions to Collectors of the issues of United States Branch Mints.

Owing to the absolute and unreserved character of the sale, Collectors will find this an excellent opportunity to purchase fine Coins at their own prices, and are respectfully invited to be represented at the sale, personally, or through myself or other dealers.

I take this opportunity of reminding Collectors that I personally execute bids entrusted to me, in all Coin Sales, both New York or Philadelphia, whether Catalogues are distributed by me or not.
